

APSI SPEAKER SERIES FALL 2018

ALICIA TURNER

Associate Professor of Humanities and Religious Studies, York University

The Violence of Buddhist Tolerance: Genealogies of Religious Difference in Colonial Burma

Thursday, September 27 4:00 pm

Ahmadih Family Conference Hall, Room 240, John Hope Franklin Center

MORTEN SCHLÜTTER

Associate Professor, Chinese Religion and Buddhist Studies, University of Iowa

Chan/Zen Meditation in Song Dynasty China

Wednesday, October 3 3:00 pm

Carpenter Room (Rubenstein Library, Room 249), Duke West Campus

SUNYOUNG PARK

Associate Professor of East Asian Languages & Cultures and Gender Studies, University of Southern California

Cultural Politics of Science Fiction in South Korea

Thursday, October 18 4:00 pm

Carpenter Room (Rubenstein Library, Room 249), Duke West Campus

MAYFAIR YANG

Professor, Religious Studies & East Asian Languages and Cultural Studies, University of California - Santa Barbara

The Significance of a "Ritual Economy" in the Context of Chinese State Capitalism and Globalization

Monday, October 29 4:00 pm

Friedl 225, Duke East Campus