9/19 1:30PM*
*After the Flood: Ecologizing Safety in Post-Tsunami Japan
Featuring Andrew Littlejohn of the Institute of Cultural Anthropology and Development Sociology of Leiden University
Co-sponsors: Duke Cultural Anthropology
Event held in FREDL HALL 223

9/28 3:30PM
The Xi Jinping Regime’s March toward Empire
Featuring Jie Yu, independent writer and activist

10/7 3:00PM
Environmental Security: A Crucible for Turning the Tide in the South China Sea
Featuring James Burton, foreign correspondent, non-resident fellow at the Stimson Center & non-resident senior fellow at SAIS
Co-sponsors: Duke Global Asia Initiative

10/21 4:00PM
Defining Tunes of the Chinese Diaspora
Featuring Nancy Rao, Professor in the Dept. of Music at Rutgers University
Co-sponsors: Duke Music, AADS, APES

11/3/22 4:00PM
Enduring “Cold War”?: Japan and the Global Politics of War and Peace, 1945-2022
Featuring Frederick Dickinson, Professor of Japanese History at UPenn
Co-sponsors: Duke Cultural Anthropology

11/10/22 1:30PM
What the Ukraine War Tells Us About China-Russia Relations
Featuring Maria Repninova, Assistant Professor in Global Communication at Georgia State University
Co-sponsors: Duke Global Asia Initiative

11/17 12:00PM*
*Korean Women Philosophers & the Ideal of a Female Sage Featuring Philip J. Ivanhoe, Professor of East Asian Languages and Cultures at Georgetown University and Hwa Yeong Wang, Post-doctoral Fellow at Emory University
Event held ONLINE